Speaker: Jennifer Owens

Jennifer Owens is a doctoral student at Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley, California, where she puts systematic and practical theologies, especially from Latino/a perspectives, in dialogue. Liturgical Press released her first book, From the Pews in the Back: Young Women and Catholicism, which she co-edited with Kate Dugan in 2009, the same year she finished her Master of Divinity at Harvard. Jennifer has pastoral experience in parishes, high schools, and universities around the U.S., and her reflections have appeared online at Daily Theology, Sojourners, Patheos, Limina, and Give Us This Day. Currently, she is working on her dissertation, which looks at the impact of devotion to Our Lady of Guadalupe on Latina Catholic women in East Los Angeles.
